The Multitude are a 5-piece prog rock/ metal band, based in London UK. The band originate from Bangalore- India, where they were known as Infinite Dreams.

In the early 2000's, the band toured and gigged extensively across India, performing at many prestigious venues and events. Since their relocation to the UK, the band have performed and headlined at several memorable venues in London, including the famous O2 Academy Islington, Hope & Anchor Islington, New Cross Inn, the Lounge- Archway, The Dublin Castle, The Unicorn Camden, The Islington, St Moritz Club and the Enterprise to name a few.

'The Multitude' is a pluralistic concept of many ordinary people acting in networked concert, harnessing music and the arts to script alternative worldviews and to freely challenge oppressive, orthodox, unjust and dominating systems. Drawing from this conceptual wellspring, The Multitude aim to fuse an unforgettable musical experience with thought-provoking stimuli and a view to creating a synergy with diverse audiences. The band believes in making meaningful music, breaking conventions & lyrical barriers and addressing diverse globally-relevant themes and issues.

In 2016, the band released a three track EP titled The Globalisation Trilogy, which is available on iTunes, Spotify and various other portals.

In Aug 2018, The Multitude released their much-awaited full-length album Passing Into Time, which is now available on all digital stores worldwide and has been received with stellar reviews.
